

Serving ALL CESA 6 Districts: Effectiveness Project[®] & WI Educator Effectiveness

Effectiveness Project[®] Hybrid Assessment Design for Teachers and Principals

Feb 11, March 18 and April 28, 2015 face-to-face sessions

Presenter: Valerie Schmitz, Ph.D., Ed.D.
CESA 6 Effectiveness Project[®] Trainer

Description

This course is designed to improve student learning by providing participants with the “why, what, and how” for developing assessments. The class focuses on districts, schools, and individuals who are interested in developing classroom assessments that are compatible with local needs. Participants will leave this course with a process for collegial feedback and quality control of assessments, a solid understanding of assessment literacy and assessment design.

Course Outcomes:

By the end of the course participants will be able to:

- Understand assessment literacy.
- Develop a construct for research-based assessment design.
- Critique and analyze the quality of assessments.
- Determine acceptable evidence of student understanding, and design assessments that can yield this evidence.
- Reflect on individual, building, and/or district processes and structures necessary for moving forward.

Who should attend?

Teacher and Principals.
