Description

Federal law requires that all students identified as English language learners be assessed annually for English language proficiency. This requirement includes students who require special education services under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). The Alternate ACCESS for ELLs is an English language proficiency test for students in grades 1-12 who are classified as English Language Learners (ELLs) and have significant cognitive disabilities.

The Alternative ACCESS must be administered by a trained, certified professional.

Who should attend?

- Special education teachers, school psychologists, ESL teachers, or other certified staff working closely with English language learners with severe cognitive disabilities.
