The most effective Co-Teaching train-the-trainer program available

Learn and build the necessary foundation for training staff in effective Co-Teaching practices with this innovative, video-based, hands-on, train-the-trainer opportunity.

Participants attending will learn the key components for a successful Co-Teaching program, which can then be delivered as a staff development framework that fits the schedule according to each school's or district's unique scheduling and training needs. The following key components are included in this train-the-trainer.

- What Co-Teaching Is and Isn't
- Building Powerful Instructional Co-Teaching Teams
- Whole Class Co-Teaching: Making the Most of Two Teachers in Whole Group Instruction
- Successful Small Group Practices to Increase Student Outcomes
- Video Clips of Co-Teaching in Action to Demonstrate Effective Inclusive Practices

This training is ideal for schools and districts looking to create a team of trainers to provide training to build and sustain a top Co-Teaching framework.

Anne Benninghof is a dynamic presenter and a pioneer in the area of Co-Teaching. She presents nationally as well as provides in-school demonstration lessons on Co-Teaching and strategies to reach all students, including students with special needs. She is the author of several books on the topic and is featured in the video series, Co-Teaching in Inclusive Classrooms. Anne focuses on creative, practical solutions for helping all students achieve high levels of learning. You will find her presentations engaging, inspirational and filled with research-based strategies you can use immediately to strengthen your Co-Teaching program.
