Transforming Education in Your Community with NC3T's College and Career Pathways System

Description:

CESA 6 has partnered with NC3T and the Global Skills X-Change (GSX) to provide schools with a systematic process in the implementation of the Pathways System Framework with metric design and analysis. Participation in the network will ensure ongoing progress, effective collaboration, and measurable results using a comprehensive set of design specifications.

Participants will:

Assess Strengths and Needs

Using targeted data, identify what is in place and what is needed to develop cutting-edge programs that integrate readiness skills.

Strengthen Career Exploration and 21st Century Skills Integration

Develop curricula and sustainable activities that enable student to authentically explore pathways and interact with employers.

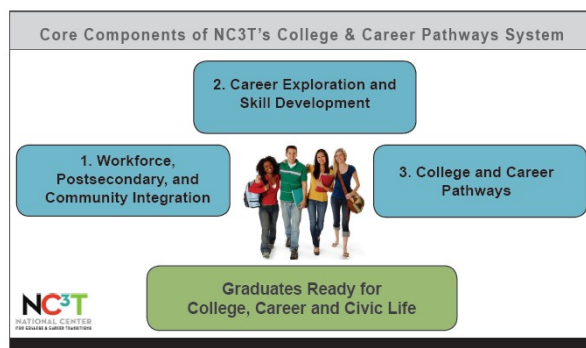

Establish Deeper Community Involvement

Build meaningful partnerships with business and industry to provide teachers and students with real world connections and insight.
