Co-Planning Instruction for English Language Learners

June 22 - 24, 2015 • 9 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Presenter: Jennifer Wilfrid

Description

Participants will utilize resources from the WIDA ELD Standards Framework to plan units of instruction which integrate content and language standards. In school teams, participants will engage in identifying the academic language demands embedded in state content standards, planning and designing a custom unit of instruction, identifying ways to support and differentiate for language development; and planning and designing methods for formative language assessment. Teams will have ample opportunities for developing materials; therefore participants are encouraged to bring curriculum materials and student ACCESS for ELLs scores.

Workshop objectives

- Discuss how to identify the academic language demands of content standards
- Explain how to integrate content standards and the WIDA ELD Standards when planning instruction and assessment
- Formulate a plan for instruction which includes learning goals for both content and language
- Formulate a plan for assessment for content learning and language development

Who should attend?

- K-12 educators, teachers of ELLs, K-12 ESL teachers and content team teachers, ELL paraprofessionals and/or bilingual aides, curriculum directors, district administrators

About the Trainer Jennifer Wilfrid's focus at WIDA is to develop and deliver professional development that helps educators and administrators respond to the unique needs of students navigating school across diverse linguistic and cultural contexts. She taught high school for eight years and has been involved in professional development for pre-service and practicing teachers related to working with English language learners. She is currently working on revisions to the CLIMBS program and developing resources for higher education instructors.
