

CESA 6 Instructional Services and the CESA 6 Math Center present:

AVMR Course 2

Add+Vantage Math Recovery®

Informed Assessment for Math Teaching

July 20-23, 2015

Instructor: Lori Loehr

In addition to being a Math Recovery Leader, Champion and Instructor, Lori is the CESA 6 Math Center Coordinator and CESA 6 Effectiveness Project® Coordinator

Course Description

Add+VantageMR® (AVMR) Course 2 includes dynamic, diagnostic, individual assessments in place value, multi-digit addition and subtraction, and multiplication and division strategies. The assessment, organizational, and teaching tools will accelerate your ability to recognize the students' current levels of numeracy understanding and to make data-driven instructional decisions.

Course Objectives

- Teachers will learn to administer and use diagnostic interviews to understand student number knowledge and arithmetic strategies
- Teachers will learn to employ a constructivist approach to the teaching of mathematics

Course Prerequisites

- Teaching certification and AVMR Course 1

Who should attend?

- Elementary Administrators, K-5 Teachers, Title I & Special Education Teachers and Middle School Teachers who work with students who are at least two years behind grade-level standards

Graduate credits

Two graduate credits will be offered through the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh. The cost for two graduate credits is $400.
