TITLE I MONITORING BINDER SUPPORT NETWORK

Fall Orientation Meeting: Mon., Sept. 28, 2015 • 9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Presenter: Anne Pagel
CESA 6 Literacy Center Coordinator

Description:

The Title I Monitoring Binder Support Network is designed to communicate federal and state legislation, policies and procedures related to Title I. At the fall meeting, network participants will be provided with an electronic binder and sample documents identifying their responsibilities for the year, related to data collecting and monitoring required for Title I compliance. Membership to the network will also include communication throughout the school year regarding any changes in legislation and compliance requirements, as well as timeline reminders for adding documentation to the binder. Network membership also includes an end-of-the-year, in-district Title I compliance check.

Objectives:

- Understand federal regulations and requirements pertaining to Title I
- Collect and organize data required by the Title I Monitoring guidelines in an electronic binder
- Receive electronic samples of required documentation
- Receive updates and timeline reminders throughout the school year
- Network and collaborate with other Title I Teachers

Who should attend:

Title I Teachers / Coordinators
