Introduction to Instructional Coaching

Wednesday, Feb. 17, 2016

Presenters: Ellen Franzone and Lisa Lesselyong
CESA 6 Educational Consultants

Description:

Discover how you can use ongoing instructional coaching to increase capacity in your schools. Rather than focusing on specific content, this session provides specific methodologies that have been proven to positively impact instruction. Discover communication practices, recruitment strategies, and supports that can be used by coaches to increase effectiveness of educators, regardless of their teaching targets.

Workshop objectives:

- Participants will develop an understanding of the differences between traditional professional development and instructional coaching
- Participants will have a clear understanding of the purposes of instructional coaching
- Participants will have an opportunity to practice evidence based strategies used for effective coaching
- Participants will be provided with resources and strategies to engage others in collaborative coaching relationships

Who should attend?

Educational professionals who provide instructional support to teachers or paraeducators.
