Literacy Beginnings for 4K

Learning About Letters, Sound, and Words

Wednesday, January 13, 2016 • 9 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Presenter: Nicole Lehr
CESA 6 Literacy Center Coordinator

Description:

This session focuses on how letter learning is an essential part of the process of becoming literate, and it provides teachers with many practical ways to best support children in learning about sounds, letters, and words. It will assist in helping teachers to think about how children need to see letters in many different contexts and how children need specific instruction on learning how to look at letters.

Workshop Objectives

- Explore a variety of ways to help children become aware of the sounds of language in the classroom.
- Incorporate many practical ways to best support children in learning about sounds, letters, and words.
- Explore many different ways to use children's names in the classroom to help them learn about print.

Who should attend: 4K teaching staff
