

Gifted & Talented Certification

Fall 2015 — Spring 2017

A collaborative effort between CESA 6, UW-Whitewater and UW-Stevens Point

Description

CESA 6, UW-Whitewater (UWW) and UW-Stevens Point (UWSP) are committed to providing teachers the opportunity to work toward Gifted and Talented (014) teacher certification. To achieve certification, teachers will complete 12 credits of graduate coursework by participating with CESA 6 and UW staff in face-to-face classes and online learning as a cohort. Credits for this certification, by way of this cohort opportunity, are being offered at a significantly reduced rate compared to the independent student rate.

- Spring 2016 Course 2: Curriculum/Methods for Gifted and Talented 3 Credits (UWSP)
- Fall 2016 Course 3: Psychological Issues in Gifted Education 3 Credits (UWW)
- Spring 2017 Course 4: Practicum in Teaching Gifted and Talented Education 3 Credits (UWSP)

All four classes are required in order to earn certification. Courses will be taught on a schedule and in a format that works best for the cohort.
