

Content Counts:

Developing Disciplinary Literacy Skills for Grades K-6

March 1, 2016 • 9 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. (Question and answer session 2:30 – 3 p.m.)

Presenter:

Nicole Lehr, CESA 6 Literacy Center Coordinator

Description

With so much emphasis on literacy in the elementary grades, how do you give math, science, and social studies the attention they deserve? How do you make content count without sacrificing the precious time spent on nurturing literacy development? This one day workshop will give participants an innovative approach to disciplinary literacy. There will be time to try out the activities to promote disciplinary literacy skills in math, science, and social studies. Teachers will rethink content literacy instruction with K-6 learners in mind.

Workshop Objectives

- Meet comprehension demands through the grades
- Communicate content knowledge orally
- Create content connections through writing
- Develop viewing skills for content reading

Who should attend:

Grades K-6 teachers, reading specialists, curriculum coordinators, and principals
