LITERACY INTERVENTION TEACHER (LIT) COLLABORATION NETWORK

FORMERLY TITLE I CLUSTER MEETINGS

Description:

The Literacy Intervention Teacher (LIT) Collaboration Network is a series of three half-day meetings (12-3:30 pm) designed specifically for Title I teachers, reading teachers and interventionists working with students in a small group or 1:1 setting. The network is designed to provide participants with resources, practices and strategies applicable to literacy interventions and support. The meetings will incorporate a year-long book study and provide a venue for collaborating with other like educators within a close proximity of their district.

The network participants will:

- Write an SLO specific to small group intervention, create a related action plan, and monitor student data to realize that objective
- Explore current and new research, practices and interventions related to literacy
- Network and collaborate with Title I teachers within a 30-40 mile radius
- Participate in a year-long book study (text TBD based upon the needs and desires of the participants)
