The Importance of Talk

Academic Discourse in High School Classrooms

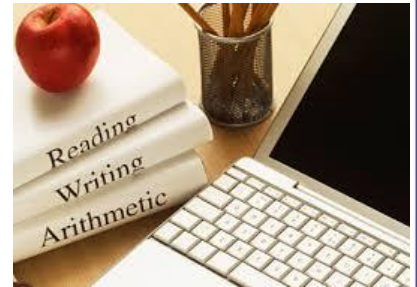

October 27, 2015 • 9 a.m. - 2:30 p.m. (Question and answer session 2:30 – 3 p.m.)

Presenter:

Erin Loritz, CESA 6 Literacy Center Coordinator

Description

This one day workshop will provide participants with current best-practice research on the importance of academic discourse in the secondary classroom. Most importantly, participants will delve into strategies for setting the stage for academic discourse, holding students accountable for their collective thinking and assessing learning through monitoring discussions.

Workshop Objectives

- Teachers will understand how talk facilitates learning
- Teachers will plan structures to support academic discourse and develop an instructional plan for implementing in their content/classroom
- Teachers will gain knowledge of how to evaluate academic discourse

Who should attend:

9-12th grade classroom teachers, literacy coaches, and instructional leaders.

This workshop is a Good Fit for Those Who:

Teachers who are open to finding a way to implement academic discourse into their course(s).
