MINI-SESSIONS

Each speaker will present 3 sessions

Early Childhood

Cathy Daentl (Early Childhood Program Support Teacher & Dale Bailey (WI Statewide Early Literacy Coordinator)

Developing a lifelong interest in reading starts in early childhood and involves families and early learning professionals working together to provide engaging language and early literacy opportunities for young children. This session will provide information about how to support the development of skills that are considered most highly related to early literacy development.

Deeper Reading with Elementary Students

Janea Sailing (Elementary Teacher)

A guide on how to take your students on a journey through a text that encourages higher-level thinking.

What's New in Middle School Literacy

Mary Lou Harris-Manske (Book Enthusiast)

*The 3rd session will have an elementary focus

Books to teach, touch the heart and tickle the funny bone! A vast array of books will be presented that enhance curriculum and support the content areas.

High School Reader's and Writer's Workshop

Clair Fedderly (Reading and Curriculum Specialist)

*The 3rd session will have a principal focus, with time for questions

How to take the workshop model and logistically condense it into a high school version. Allowing students to grow as readers and writers in a structured and passionate environments.

Forgiveness Literacy

Dr. Theodore Kyder Ed.D (Superintendent)

Forgiveness is a leadership trait and a leadership power. You will explore what forgiveness is, what it is not, and the historic link to better leading and living while using literacy to foster growth and build capacity.

Teaching Our Readers When They Struggle

Barb and Laura (DPI Consultant)

*They will not offer a 3rd session
