

Poverty Strategies with the Brain in Mind

Coffee & Conversation

with Eric Jensen

Don't miss this amazing opportunity to connect with Eric Jensen and other educational leaders!

Eric Jensen will share his extensive knowledge of neuroscience research and practical strategies for creating highly engaging learning environments that support students who live in poverty. Come and engage in the discussion and explore strategies to be deployed at a leadership level and the considerations needed to create environments that are conducive to student learning, teacher empathy, and leadership.

DATE, TIME & LOCATION

August 26, 2016

8:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Brown Deer High School Commons

8060 North 60th Street

COST

$50 per person

District teams of 10 or more will receive a copy of each of Eric Jensen's books!

AGENDA

8:00 Registration and networking - coffee provided by Starbucks!

8:30-11:30 Listen, learn, and dialog with Eric Jensen and other educational leaders

11:30-12:30 System, school, and regional collaboration. Process new information, identify next steps, and plan for implementation.

HOSTED BY

Ted Neitzke, CESA 6

Chief Education Officer

Deb Kerr, School District of Brown Deer
Superintendent

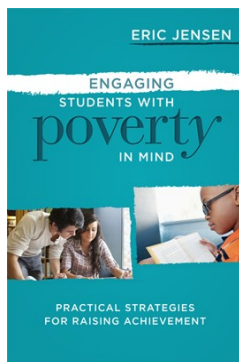

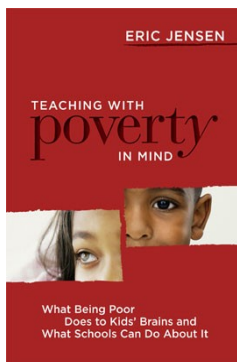

Demond Means, Mequon-Thiensville School District
Superintendent

Eric Jensen is the world's leader in brain based learning. He co-founded SuperCamp, the world's first brain-compatible program and is the author of more than 28 books, including these key resources for educators and educational leaders.

"Too Many of our most vulnerable students are tuning out and dropping out because of our failure to engage them. It's time to set the bar higher. Until we make school the best part of every student's day, we will struggle with attendance, achievement, and graduation rates."

-Eric Jensen

For Additional Information:

Cheryl Malaha

Executive Director

Instructional Services, CESA 6

cmalaha@cesa6.org

262-573-7025

