

Mark Your Calendars!! Early Childhood Tribal Workgroup

On August 9, 2016, Jodi Pfarr, a National Facilitator will be returning!!!

Plan on joining us for another full day of discussions and group exercises designed to enhance your "90-Day Community Work Plan." This session will be insightful and interactive. Jodi helps participants verbalize their passions, skills and sense of urgency creating a strategic plan to achieve that future goals.

This initiative serves as a model for tribal early childhood programs to work in a cohesive and aligned way to support young children and their families by breaking down program "silos".

Participant Outcomes

- Develop effective strategies for your organization and community
- Become an agent of change for your families and community
- Tailor the 90-Day strategies to your community's needs

Who Should Attend

- Early Childhood Tribal Service Professionals in each tribal community who provide services to their community's children and families.
- Tribal Council leaders and members
- Medical or dental providers
- Recipients from the Great Lakes Inter-Tribal mini grant for early childhood professionals
- Voices from other members of your community

We encourage you to invite other members of your local collaborating team. This will allow for a more vibrant discussion about how changes can generate positive outcomes in your community.
