The Importance of Talk Academic Discourse in High School Classrooms

Nov. 3, 2016 or Mar. 23, 2017 • 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Presenter: Erin Loritz
CESA 6 Literacy Center Coordinator

Description

This one day workshop will provide participants with current best-practice research on the importance of academic discourse in the secondary classroom. Most importantly, participants will delve into strategies for setting the stage for academic discourse, holding students accountable for their collective thinking and assessing learning through monitoring discussions.

Workshop objectives

Teachers will:

- Understand the research behind and the importance of academic discourse at the high school level.
- Understand how academic discourse facilitates learning.
- Plan structures to support academic discourse and develop an instructional plan for implementing in their content/classroom.
- Consider strategies for creating an environment that encourages academic discourse in all content areas.
- Gain knowledge of how to evaluate academic discourse.

Who should attend?

9-12th grade teachers, Literacy Coaches, instructional leaders.
