

What Does it Mean to be “College And Career Ready?” - January 25, 2017 at CESA #4

Redefining Ready! is a national campaign to introduce a new multi-metric, research-based approach to determining what it truly means to be college ready, career ready, and life ready for students.

Presenter: Dr. David R. Schuler
Supt. of High School District 214, in Chicago
(Blue Ribbon School District—US Dept. of Education)
- President of AASA 2015-16
- Advocate for Redefining Ready! Campaign
- Speaker at Fall Supts. Conf. 2016—Positive Reviews

Redefining Ready! - has a growing number of supporters who agree that our students are more than a score. The initiative offers educators an opportunity to diversify the manner in which we measure student success overall.

When: Wednesday, January 25, 2017
9 am—12 Noon Presentation by Dr. David Schuler
Lunch Catered In
12:45 pm— 4 pm Team Discussion and Planning Time

Where: CESA #4—Heritage Room
923 East Garland Street, West Salem, WI 54669

Audience: Administrators and school leadership teams
No Cost to Attend! Register at MyQuickReg.com

Questions:

CESA #4
923 East Garland Street
West Salem, WI 54669
Phone: 608.786.4805
Email: mkotek@cesa4.org