

Linking Award-Winning Informational Texts With STEM Learning PK-12

CESA #4 is honored to partner with local expert, D. Timothy Gerber, Biology Professor at UW-LaCrosse for this workshop.

Tuesday, February 28, 2017

9:00 am - 3:00 pm

Register on MyQuickReg.com.

Cost: $150 per person or $300 for teams of three

Audience: Classroom teachers, science educators, library media specialists, curriculum leaders, instructional leaders, curriculum development team

This hands-on high quality literature day promises learning, collaboration and action planning for teams ready to enhance STEM learning with award winning literature PK-12.

Register as a team to:

- Understand strong connections between science, math, language and literacy
- Connect ELA and Math with Science
- Create an action plan for developing current science curriculum with NGSS and STEM Standards in mind
- Get your hands on exemplary informational texts