

CO-TEACHING

"IT'S JUST THE BEGINNING"

This training is intended for schools and districts looking to build and sustain a Co-Teaching framework built around strategies designed to reach and engage all students, including students with special needs. The focus of this training will be on creative, practical solutions for helping all students achieve high levels of learning based on, Anne Benninghof's, book titled "Co-Teaching That Works." Participants attending will find this training engaging, inspirational, and filled with research-based strategies that can be used immediately.

TRAINERS:

Deb Wall, CESA 8 RSN & Special Education Director
Stephanie Feldner, CESA 8 CIA Associate

COST: $250.00 for a Team of 2 participants for CESA 8 SNPD Member School Districts; $500.00 for a Team of 2 participants for all other districts.

August 16, 2017 - DAY 1

February 20, 2018 - DAY 2

9:00AM—3:00PM

CESA 8 Office - Gillett, WI

Participants will learn the following key components for a successful Co-Teaching program:

What Co-Teaching Is and Isn't

- Learn the practical working definitions of Co-Teaching and the key characteristics for an effective framework
- Discover what works in establishing Co-Teaching teams and pitfalls to avoid

Building Powerful Instructional Co-Teaching Teams

- Identify specific ideas for defining roles between Co-Teachers
- Learn keys to successful communication
- Gather tools for working together to strengthen your instruction
- Explore creative ideas for finding time to collaborate
- Distinguish best practices to tap the expertise of each teacher in the Co-Teaching partnership

Whole Class Co-Teaching: Making the Most of Two Teachers in Whole Group Instruction

- Examine best practices for whole group structures
- Discover practical strategies to use Co-Teaching to enhance instructional effectiveness and to differentiate instruction with greater success
- Target specific teaching strategies to maximize each Co-Teacher's experience during whole group instruction

Successful Small Group Practices to Increase Student Outcomes

- Identify the essential elements of establishing small groups within the same classroom
- Manage small groups in a Co-Teaching model
- Maximize the benefits of small groups with research-based instructional strategies

Cancellation Policy: Any registration cancellation must be received 5 business days before the scheduled date to receive a refund or avoid invoicing. Registered participants not in attendance on the day of the session will be charged the full registration fee. CESA 8 reserves the right to cancel any session due to insufficient enrollment or inclement weather. Participants will be notified via email through myQuickReg.com if a cancellation occurs. Please make sure all of your contact information is current and correct in myQuickReg.com.