

This event is presented by the Regional Services Network (RSN), the Literacy Center and the Language & Culture Center

Co-Teaching in Reading Workshop

Meeting accountability measures of RDA (Results Driven Accountability) and ESSA

Dec. 8, 2017, Jan. 15, 2018 and April 12, 2018 • 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Jenny Larson,
RSN

Kathy Schmitt,
Literacy Ctr.

Tere Masiarchin,
Language & Culture Ctr.

Description

In this 3-session workshop series, classroom teachers, special education and English Language Learner (ELL) teachers will learn specific ways to partner across the Reading Workshop block to maximize programming for all students, but especially for ELL and those students with Individual Education Plans (IEP). This workshop series will be a good fit for participants who are charged with meeting the needs of ELLs and students with IEPs in a Reading Workshop model.

Session topics by date:

Session 1 (Dec. 8th): Co-Teaching Formats to Meet IEP / Language Goals

Session 2 (Jan. 15th): Collaborating and Co-planning to Support Readers

Session 3 (Apr. 12th): Engaging Diverse Learners during Reading Workshop and Beyond

Workshop series objectives

Participants will learn to:

- Strategically use effective co-teaching formats.
- Maximize strategies for collaboration and communication.
- Set students up for high success: before the mini-lesson starts, across the workshop block, and throughout the layers of support.
- Implement language supports for ELLs.
- Apply culturally responsive and family engagement practices.

Who should attend?

Teams, including: classroom teachers, ELL/bilingual teachers, special education teachers, literacy coaches, special education directors and principals.

For additional information or questions contact:

Amy Ruppert, program assistant for the Literacy Center
aruppert@cesa6.org • (920) 236-0562

Funding sources that can be utilized for this important training:

- IDEA Flow Thru
- Title I
- Title II-A
- Title III

Registration details

- Dates: Dec. 8, 2017, Jan. 15, 2018 and April 12, 2018
- Registration fee:
 - * $450 per participant
 - Fee includes three workshop sessions with lunch and online access to workshop materials.
- Time: 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.
- Location:
CESA 6 Conference Center
2300 State Road 44, Oshkosh
- Registration deadline:
Fri., Dec. 1, 2017
- To register online, go to:
<http://www.cesa6.org/professional-development/>
 - Scroll down events list to December 8th to find this workshop series.