

Early Literacy Academy

Instructor: Darla Brink, CESA 8 Literacy Center Director

CESA 8 ~ 223 W Park St, Gillett

August 14, 16, 23, and 24, 2017

9:00 AM – 3:00 PM daily

The academy is a comprehensive reading training for early literacy educators. This course will focus on enhancing a research-informed knowledge base and quality instruction of the key elements of an effective reading program: phonemic awareness, decoding, vocabulary development, fluency, and comprehension. This four-day plan will engage teachers in research exploration, practical, hands-on sample lesson models, collegial discourse, protocols for literacy assessment, and alignment with state standards. Participants will gain a view of the current state of reading education, key literacy concepts, teaching tips and intervention strategies as they strengthen instructional pedagogy and explore classroom applications with other early literacy educators throughout the region. The training will build capacity to teach within any reading program and improve outcome for all students.

Audience: 4K, Kindergarten, first grade teachers, special education teachers, interventionists, reading specialists, literacy coaches, curriculum directors

Cost: $300.00 per person for 2017-17 CESA 8 – CIA or Literacy Center Member School Districts.
$450.00 for all others

Registration: myQuickReg.com

Day 1 – August 14, 2017

- Foundational Concepts about Oral and Written Language
- Teaching Phonological Awareness

Day 3 – August 23, 2017

- Teaching Phonics and Word Recognition
- Teaching Fluent, Automatic Reading of Text

Day 2 – August 16, 2017

- Teaching Phonemic Awareness
- Teaching Phonics and Word Recognition

Day 4 – August 24, 2017

- Teaching for Language Comprehension
- Academic Language Development and Vocabulary Instruction

For more information contact:

Darla dbrink@cesa8.org, or

Betty bettyk@cesa8.org - 920.855.2114 x 252