

Coaching Conversations

October 10, 2017

9:00 AM – 3:30 PM

CESA #12 Conference Center

Using the source of Jim Knight's "Coaching Conversations", participants will examine and practice the five essential elements of ensuring better coaching conversations. Participants will also examine John Hattie's eight mind frames as a way to develop teachers/leaders thinking to more positively effect student learning. Action planning to integrate these concepts into our coaching conversations and interactions will be developed.

Presenter: Ellen Nelson, CESA #12 Educational Consultant
