Nonviolent Crisis Intervention (NVCi) Verbal De-escalation Training

September 25, 2017 • November 28, 2017 • February 1, 2018

Participants need only attend one session

Course Instructor: Erin Lausten and Diane Braker
CESA 6 Program Support Specialists

Description: Educators recognize the need for timely, effective verbal interventions with students who exhibit challenging behaviors. They know that such verbal interventions improves the physical safety of all participants and created a more trusting and caring learning environment.

The Nonviolent Crisis Intervention® program is a safe, non-harmful behavior management system designed to help educational and human services professionals provide the best possible Care, Welfare, Safety and Security of disruptive individuals

Note: Participants will not be certified in the nonviolent physical interventions or holding skills in this training, but will learn the same personal safety and verbal de-escalation techniques that are taught in the initial Nonviolent Crisis Intervention training program.

Workshop Objectives:

- Identify the potential for aggressive or disruptive behaviors.
- Identify the appropriate measures to avoid, decelerate and/or de-escalate a crisis situation.
- Describe the potential impact that crisis situations have on individuals and staff.
- Explain the importance of providing person-centered, proactive services.

Who should attend?

Professionals, such as teachers, administrators, teaching assistants, social workers, counselors, psychologists, etc., working with students with challenging behaviors within school and community settings. Note: This training is not recommended for parents.

This training aligns with evaluation standards from the CESA 6 Effectiveness Project and the Educator Effectiveness (Danielson Model). For a list of specific standards, contact Sarah Jaeckel at sjaeckel@cesa6.org.
