

HOW TO AVOID A SERIES OF UNFORTUNATE COACHING EVENTS

This four-part workshop series is designed to be taken in sequence, but are also topics that can be independent of one another.

You are welcome to attend any or all 4 of the sessions.

The focus is K-12 but will be organic to participants. Resources and discussion will be driven by participants based on needs, questions, and interests. Questions ahead of time are encouraged.

AUDIENCE: Instructional Coaches, Principals, Curriculum Directors, Literacy Coaches, Technology Coaches, Mentors

REGISTRATION FEE:

- CESA 5 School Improvement Members: $100 each session or all 4 for $300
- Non-members: $150 each session or all 4 for $500

TO REGISTER:

Graduate credit(s) available for additional fee through Edgewood College.

Registration questions? Contact Melissa Sumwalt:
sumwaltm@cesa5.org or 608-745-5478

626 E Slifer St
Portage, WI 53901

SESSION 1

9/14/17, 9 am - 3 pm @ CESA 5

Developing Norms and Adult Learning

- Exploring the instructional coaching cycle
- How to get started with coaching
- Developing norms
- How to differentiate for adult learners

SESSION 2

12/11/17, 9 am - 3 pm @ CESA 5

Being a Good Listener and Instructional Coaching Cycle

- Listening with empathy
- Fostering dialogue
- How to ask better questions
- Addressing resistance

SESSION 3

2/21/18, 9 am - 3 pm @ CESA 5

Characteristics of Effective Coaches, Trust, and Gathering Data

- Understanding the characteristics of effective coaches
- Looking at an instructional play book
- Using data with adults
- Coaching guidelines

SESSION 4

4/20/18, 9 am - 3 pm @ CESA 5

Communication and Leadership Skills

- When coaching conversations require evaluation
- Redirecting toxic conversations
- Strategies for effective feedback
- Partnering with local school leaders