LITERACY INTERVENTION TEACHER (LIT) NETWORK

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 27, 2017 & THURSDAY, MAY 17, 2018 • 12:30 - 3:30 p.m.

SEE MID-YEAR DATES AND LOCATIONS BELOW

Presenter: Anne Pagel, Literacy Center & Title I Coordinator

Description

The Literacy Intervention Teacher (LIT) Network is a series of three half-day meetings designed specifically for Title I teachers, reading teachers and interventionists working with students in a small group or 1:1 setting. The network will provide participants with resources, practices and strategies applicable to literacy interventions and support. The meetings will also provide a venue for collaborating with other like educators within the CESA 6 area. NOTE: The September and May meetings will be held at CESA 6 and the January meeting will be held in regional locations.

Workshop objectives

Network participants will:

- Explore research, practices and interventions related to literacy
- Network/collaborate with literacy intervention teachers
- Participate in a year-long book study (text TBD)
- Use student assessment data to select and utilize most appropriate interventions, strategies and practices
