

WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

- A place to go to learn about federal and state updates concerning Title III and English learners
- Various professional development opportunities for educators interested in deepening their knowledge of English learners

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

Educational professionals including teachers and administrators who are interested in deepening their knowledge of best practices for teaching English learners

PROFESSIONAL SERIES DATES:

October 17, 2017

9 am - 2 pm @ CESA 5

January 22, 2018

9 am - 2 pm @ CESA 5

April 16, 2018

9 am - 2 pm @ CESA 5

COST: PER DATE

~FREE for CESA 5 Title III Consortium Members

~$75 for CESA 5 School Improvement Members

~$125 All Others

TO REGISTER:

English Learner Network Meeting and Professional Development Series

~CESA 5 Title III Consortium~

THE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES WILL FOCUS ON THE FOLLOWING TOPICS:

- Identifying and screening language learners
- How students acquire language
- Strategies to be more effective in the classroom with English learners
- Strategies to engage all students, including English learners
- Equity
- Cultural awareness, cultural responsiveness, and integrating culture ideas into the classroom
- English learner resources including WIDA, ¡Colorín Colorado!, Stanford University, etc.
- WIDA standards and English language proficiency levels
- Instructional planning including differentiation, personalized learning, and universal design for learning
- Sheltered instruction
- Assessment practices (formative and summative)
- Topics to be determined (based on participant feedback)

Title III Coordinator: Tammy Sjoberg

sjobergt@cesa5.org

608-745-5473