

Music PLN: Investigating New Standards and Disciplinary Literacy in the Arts

Event Date: January 24, 2018

8:30 a.m. Check in and Breakfast

9:00—3:30 Workshop

Participants bring a technology device

Join the DPI's Julie Palkowski, Ph.D. (Fine Arts and Creativity Education Consultant) & CESA #4 for our second Music PLN: Investigating New Standards & Disciplinary Literacy in the Arts

This interactive session will include activities that support the use of disciplinary literacy tools - writing, reading, thinking, listening, speaking, and performing - to deepen student arts learning.

We will also tour the new WI Standards for Music. Participants will have an opportunity to navigate the standards, see the accompanying resources online, develop some team lessons, and share ideas for implementation in the classroom.

Event cost: $25 per registrant
Free to #219 level 1b districts
Attend first three 2017-18 PLN sessions & attend last session free!

Registration: Pre-registration required on myQuickReg
REGISTER HERE

What to bring: laptop/
portable technology device

Fayme Evenson

Phone: 608-786-4833

E-mail: fevenson@cesa4.org

CESA #4

923 East Garland Street
West Salem, WI 54669