

The Literacy Center presents: Incorporating and Navigating Through Additional Units of Study to Support 1st Grade Learners

April 25, 2019

9:00 A.M. – 3:00 P.M.

This workshop is a good fit for staff of school districts that are using a workshop framework and that are using Units of Study. Teachers should be covering an average of six to eight units per school year in reading and writing. This session will cover an additional unit that could be placed within next school year's timeline for each, reading and writing workshop.

WORKSHOP SESSION TOPICS

Reading Workshop: Readers Get To Know Characters by Performing

Writing Workshop: Music in Our Hearts: Writing Songs and Poetry

SERIES OBJECTIVES

- Understand overview of an If...Then... unit for Reading and Writing Workshop.
- Connect standards and review essential questions for each unit.
- Review materials to prepare for the unit, assessment options, and mentor texts.
- Explore mini-lessons and create anchor charts.
