USING THE WORKSHOP MODEL IN HIGH SCHOOL ENGLISH LANGUAGE ARTS CLASSROOMS

JANUARY 24, 2019 | 9 AM – 3 PM

High school teachers are tasked with an important challenge: teach our youth how to be powerful writers, access complex texts, effectively use discourse and academic language, and justify their reasoning using evidence...all while fostering personal growth and development. That is significant! Learn how implementing the workshop model in your English Language Arts (ELA) classroom can help support your learners in accomplishing all of the above. This workshop addresses methods for supporting learners through whole group, small group, and individual instructional opportunities in order to meet the diverse needs of all learners.

OBJECTIVES

Participants will:

- Understand what the Workshop Model looks like at the high school level.
- Examine the role of the teacher: establishing routines and norms.
- Discuss collaborative strategies to improve discourse and use of academic language.
- Explore how to effectively manage independent learning opportunities (What are the other students doing?).
- Learn from one another in a safe and supportive environment.

PRESENTED BY:

Heather Anderson
CESA 6 Literacy Consultant
