Data Privacy, Data Security, Cybersecurity-- Oh My! What Every Educator Needs to Know

What is data privacy? What is data security? What is cybersecurity? Very different, yet critical, terms we are hearing a lot about lately. This Data Privacy Summit is dedicated to learning the difference, exploring privacy and security best practices as recommended by CoSN, NIST, Future Ready, PTAK, and DPI, developing policy and protocol around data privacy, technology application procurement procedures, and professional learning necessitated by all three of these areas.
