

This event is presented by the CESA 6 Special Education Services Center

IEP Bootcamp

August 13 - 14, 2019 (2 days) • 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Presenter: CESA 6 Directors of Special Education

Description:

IEPs are usually the last things you want to do; however, when written well, they can help facilitate instruction. This workshop will provide best practice guidance on IEP processes and help teachers use IEPs as tools, instead of viewing the writing of them as hoops to jump through.

Day 1: Standards-based IEPs

- Content standards overview
- Linking IEPs to content standards
- Collaboration with IEP Writing

Day 2: Disability Related Needs and Progress Monitoring

- Best practice in writing Disability Related Needs
- Data collection on progress on IEP goals
- Creation of graphs to illustrate progress toward goals
- Collaboration with IEP Writing

All person registering are encouraged to bring with them o the training a laptop and copies of current IEPs (optional)

Who should attend?

Special Education teachers K-12.
