

Educator Leadership & Coaching

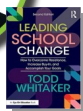

2019—2020 Collaborative Series

Join us to learn powerful practices and acquire new coaching techniques. Expert teaching, teamwork and networking within this professional series will hone the skills necessary to effectively leverage teacher-leader passions and expertise to guide change, build resilience, and increase student achievement.

ABOUT TODD

Currently a professor of Educational Leadership, he has studied thousands of teachers to become one of the nation's leading authorities on staff motivation, teacher leadership, and principal effectiveness.

TODD WHITAKER: LEADING SCHOOL CHANGE [October 7 & November 5]

Todd will kick off the series with a focus on Leading School Change. Cheerleaders for innovation or change must implement specific strategies to increase the likelihood of success. We'll learn how to work effectively with others, overcome resistance, and gain widespread acceptance. Todd's day 2 webinar will focus on step-by-step actions to bring about desired change. He will help us discover clear ways to lead and manage school change by setting realistic goals, planning approaches, and tracking progress in order to make immediate, results-oriented, supported change.

AM session

- Todd will join the group virtually for a live, 2-hour webinar packed full of relevant leadership and coaching content and high quality learning activities;
- Participants will engage in PRE & POST activities, lead by the CESA 6 team, to maximize participation, reflection and growth.

PM session

- Participants will engage in self-chosen breakout sessions to dig deeper into Todd's content by connecting topic content to coaching practices.
- Participants will engage in whole group PRE & POST activities to maximize participation, reflection and growth.

ABOUT DIANE

A teacher, coach, and consultant for more than 20 years, Diane is a respected expert on supporting administrators and coaches to implement practices that make a direct impact on student learning.

DIANE SWEENEY: LEADING STUDENT-CENTERED COACHING [December 6 & January 10*]

Diane Sweeney's sectional will focus on Student-Centered Coaching. She will prepare us with the background, practices, and tools required for a coaching program to be based upon thoughtfulness, leadership, and a team approach. Her first webinar will emphasize how to connect school improvement to coaching, defining roles for coach and principal, and setting teacher expectations for participation in coaching. In January, Diane will advise us on how to foster a school culture which can be leveraged by your coaching program, drive high quality instruction, and how to separate coaching from supervision.

AM session

- Diane will join the group virtually for a live, 2-hour webinar packed full of relevant leadership and coaching content and high quality learning activities;
- Participants will engage in PRE & POST activities, lead by the CESA 6 team, to maximize participation, reflection and growth.

PM session

- Participants will engage in self-chosen breakout sessions to dig deeper into Diane's content by connecting topic content to coaching practices.
- Participants will engage in whole group PRE & POST activities to maximize participation, reflection and growth.

*The January 10th meeting schedule will host Diane's webinar in the PM session.

ABOUT JANET

A teacher, coach, and staff developer for more than 20 years, Janet is a certified coach in The Art of Coaching, supporting educators to build resilience in order to meet the needs of children.

JANET BAIRD: ONWARD [February 3 & March 2]

The third sectional of this series will feature Janet Baird. Be prepared to dive into the habits and dispositions of a resilient educator as outlined in Onward. You will learn how to recognize entry points to building resilience in individuals and in organizations, and will practice doing so. Janet will lead us on an exploration of where in the cycle of an emotion empowering stories happen, what is possibly holding us back from telling empowering stories, and what specific strategies will help to expand our stories to cultivate resilience. Discover the role that the disposition of optimism plays cultivating resilience.

AM session

- Janet will join the group virtually for a live, 2-hour webinar packed full of relevant leadership and coaching content and high quality learning activities;
- Participants will engage in PRE & POST activities, lead by the CESA 6 team, to maximize participation, reflection and growth.

PM session

- Participants will engage in self-chosen breakout sessions to dig deeper into Janet's content by connecting topic content to coaching practices.
- Participants will engage in whole group PRE & POST activities to maximize participation, reflection and growth.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Investigate varied leadership and coaching topics presented by national and international experts to increase knowledge and to improve practices
- Explore tools to increase knowledge and application of best practice coaching competencies and delivery models
- Individual / team growth via reflection, stretched thinking, feedback, practice, and networking with regional peers

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE?

Leaders who support teachers:

Instructional coaches;
Literacy coaches / Reading specialists;
Math Coaches;
Teacher leaders;
Behavioral coaches;
Program support teachers;
Special education mentors;
Principals;
Curriculum and instruction directors;
Special education directors.

DETAILS & REGISTRATION

LOCATION

CESA 6 Conference Center
2300 State Road 44, Oshkosh

TIMES

8:30 AM — 3:00 PM

COST

$725 for full 3-section series —OR—
$275 for each 2-meeting section

- Includes online materials/resources
- Includes lunch each day

REGISTER : <https://bit.ly/2JoJrQX>

QUESTIONS? CONTACT:

Amy Ruppert, CESA 6 Program Asst.
amy.ruppert@cesa6.org
(920) 236-0526

Series brought to you by CESA 6:

