Schools have been implementing SEL by focusing on building awareness, commitment and creating a plan.

Many teams are ready for the next steps:

- Cultivating adult SEL
- Promoting SEL for students and
- Using data for continuous quality improvement

Participants will:

- Identify how to strengthen the social and emotional skills of staff
- Plan how to build their staff expertise to support SEL efforts in the school
- Learn how to build student acquisition of skills
- Learn how to support student application of skills
- Develop a plan to collect data for continuous quality improvement of SEL efforts using a Plan Do Study Act (PDSA) process

Please note: This session has pre-requisite requirements.

Your school has:

- Completed a Day 1 training with a team
- Completed SEL assessment rubric
- A team dedicated to coordinating SEL efforts
- A team of 3 or more that will attend

Presenters: Beth A. Herman, MSE, School Mental Health Training Consultant
Gregg Curtis, PhD, School Counselor Consultant
Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, Madison

COST: $40.00 (Includes lunch and snacks)
