Need valuable, ready to use strategies for teaching your ELs? Wondering how to meet the needs of students? This workshop series combines research with ready to use strategies for sheltering your instruction with English learners! In the words of Hattie, Fischer, and Frey, "Every student deserves a great teacher, not by chance, but by design." Let's work together to design great instruction for our multilingual learners.

New this year: Day 1 is flexible, anytime/anywhere and at your own pace.

Sheltering Instruction: Foundations to SIOF online module. By completing this module you will build your foundational knowledge of SIOF and be ready to engage in the face to face Day 2 workshop. The module will be available for completion from September 15, 2020 through December 1, 2020.

Audience: Elementary grade-level teachers, English language development specialists, and instructional coaches.

Gretchen Lettau joins CESA #2 as a consultant in the Language and Culture Center of Excellence supporting the areas of Language Acquisition, English Learners, and Dual Language Education. Throughout her career, Gretchen has collaborated with school districts in the areas of best practices, EL Co-teaching methods, academic language development, literacy and language practices when implementing workshop models, program reviews, and professional learning.
