

Rethink, Revise, RENEW!

Literacy Learning at a Distance

We know you are navigating new territories in the world of teaching and learning. WE'VE GOT YOU! The CESA 6 Literacy Center team is here to support you and your professional learning during these unprecedented and challenging times. We developed these webinars around topics that were requested by teachers and administrators. We hope they resonate with you and help support your work.

DECEMBER 2: ENGAGING STUDENTS IN MEANINGFUL REMOTE LEARNING (Grades K—12)

Through Personal Digital Literacy (PDI) we will emphasize the significance of the personal relationship between teachers and students, and the roles that students have in the learning process. The Digital reflects the important role that digital texts and tools have come to play in both learning and teaching with inquiry. And then the Inquiry lies at the core of PDI, because learners grow and change with relevant and authentic opportunities to identify problems and generate solutions. Learn how to engage students' thinking and intellectual curiosity in the classroom and in home learning.

DECEMBER 9: THE LITERACY WORKSHOP—INTEGRATING READING AND WRITING (Grades K—5)

Are you searching for ways to make the most of your previous in class learning? Learn how we can combine reading and writing workshop with a Big Idea into one workshop: The Literacy Workshop. By doing this, children will understand and practice the habits and behaviors of literate citizens, their literacy competence, and confidence soars. This approach can be infused into already scheduled literacy time.

DECEMBER 16: ARE WE TEACHING WHAT IS ESSENTIAL? (Grades K—8)

Given our current educational circumstances, are we choosing to spend our time teaching the right lessons and focuses? Time is the currency of education and now is the time to be prioritizing our instruction with what is truly essential in the classroom. This webinar will provide guidance in how to choose 'What is Essential of Essential' to teach right now.
