The FRST is a comprehensive tool; all of the components in the FRST are necessary for a school or district system to ensure that every reader learns to comprehend printed text. The Foundational Reading Skills Tool (FRST), is a self-assessment instrument built around the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction's (DPI's) vision of what it means to explicitly and systematically teach foundational reading skills.

Across the webinar series, key information from Wisconsin DPI's professional learning series on foundational reading skills will be presented. Each webinar offers time to complete the relevant portions of the FRST tool. The webinar concludes with suggestions for additional items within DPI's resource to explore and share with staff.
