Increasing the Power of Guided Reading through Prompting, Word Study and Guided Writing

January 13, 2015 • 8:30 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Presenter: Jan Richardson

Description:

Guided reading allows teachers to diversify their reading instruction to meet the individual needs of their students. This presentation will explore principles of guided reading that make small-group instruction powerful. Elements discussed include using assessment to determine a focus, prompting for strategies, word study, and guided writing. Learn how powerful guided reading lessons can accelerate your students, even your struggling readers. Videos included!

About the Presenter: Jan Richardson is a literacy consultant and author who earned her Ph.D. studying struggling readers. She has been a classroom teacher, reading specialist, Reading Recovery® teacher leader, and staff developer. Her most recent book, The Next Step in Guided Reading, provides teachers with practical suggestions and lesson plans for increasing the power and impact of guided reading. Participants leave her workshops with a new awareness of what can be done to motivate, engage, and accelerate every student – especially struggling readers. Jan conducts custom-ized in-services on balanced literacy, guided reading, and writing.

Who should attend: Grades K-5 classroom teachers

Cancellation Policy: Any registration cancellation must be received 48 hours before the scheduled date for a refund to be issued. Because attendance at most sessions is limited, persons registering and not in attendance on the day of the session will be charged the full registration fee. CESA 6 reserved the right to cancel any session due to insufficient enrollment. Participants will be notified by email or phone if a cancellation occurs.
