

WISExplore

2014 Data Retreats

A Wisconsin CSN (CESA Statewide Network) Initiative

GAPS: July 29—30 · K—8: August 11—12 · High School: August 18—19

Eric Larsen, Coordinator of School Accountability

Mary Ann Hudziak, Coordinator of Mathematics and ESEA Support

Purpose

WISEdash and other state data tools offer new opportunities to enhance data inquiry for educators. Bring your school-improvement team and Title I team to participate in this two-day workshop using the new WISExplore inquiry process with state data indicators for your school. This active retreat will enhance your team's skills with "WISE" data tools as they inform your school improvement direction.

Participate in a guided process to ...

- Use state data tools and the WISExplore process
- Explore and analyze achievement, growth, attendance, gaps, post-secondary and other state-available data to the student detail level
- Determine data questions, document data findings, formulate data inferences
- Inform the school improvement process, with connections to annual goals, AMOs, SLO focus areas and strategic action plans

Requirements:

- School Leadership Teams; Title I Coordinators; Special Education; ELL
- WISEdash and MDAT access to student detail analyst level
- 2 Laptop computers or ipads (internet ready)
- 2 LCD projectors
