Sheltering Instruction for English Learners

2014-2015 School Year

Facilitator: Tere Masiarchin
CESA 6 Language & Culture Center Coordinator

Description

Need ready to use strategies for teaching your ELs? This guided demonstration workshop will combine research with ready to use strategies for sheltering your instruction with English learners! You will practice each strategy and determine how to incorporate it into your instruction.

This workshop is available in two different formats! Join us for five afternoons throughout the school year, so you can receive the workshop materials in chunks. This allows you to time to implement each strategy and reflect upon your work. If you aren't able to set aside five afternoons, then join us for a one day workshop! Either way, you'll gain valuable strategies for teaching English learners.
