

Serving ALL CESA 6 Districts: Effectiveness Project® & WI Educator Effectiveness

Student Learning Objectives for Educational Specialists-Pewaukee

1-day session: August 7, 2014

Presenters: Darlene Godfrey • Lori Loehr
CESA 6 Effectiveness Project® Trainers

Description

This professional development is designed for Educational Specialists to gain a comprehensive perspective of Service Learning Objectives (SLOs) and what they mean at the program and/or service level(s). Participants will understand the process and steps necessary for successful implementation of SLOs and how they relate to outcome measures of The Effectiveness Project.

Bring if you have...current goals you are considering and computer/tablets.

Workshop Objectives

Participants will:

- Understand the importance of quality SLOs for improving student learning.
- Understand how SLOs fit into the Wisconsin Educator Effectiveness System.
- Understand the SLO process and critical steps for implementation.
- Practicing writing and reviewing SLOs.

Who should attend?

Includes school counselors, school nurses, school psychologists, social workers, library media specialists, instructional technology specialists, occupational and physical therapists and could also include speech/language therapists. It does not include non-teaching, non-certified, non-licensed staff, such as clerical assistants or custodians.
