Google Apps for Education

August 11-12, 2014 ● 9 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Trainers: Kurt Wismer and Katie Grassel

Description

Are you new to Google Apps for Education or looking to become more comfortable with Google Apps in the classroom? Taught by two Google Certified Teachers and Trainers, this session will focus on how to effectively use Google Apps for Education, provide hands-on activities, strategies, and best practices for the classroom.

About the Trainers

Kurt is a Google Certified Teacher and Trainer. As a Business, Marketing and IT teacher at Shiocton School District, Kurt uses technology throughout his curriculum to create durable learning experiences for his students that are both rigorous and transformative as they prepare for their careers and continued education. Kurt is part of the technology team at Shiocton that has lead the school to a 1:1 environment and has provided considerable training and support in that initiative. Kurt is just finishing his master's degree at UW-Stout in Career and Technical Education.

Katie is a Google Certified Teacher and Trainer. She uses her passion for technology to teach and engage students and teachers. Her role as a Business and Information Technology teacher in Seymour has her exposed to many new trends in technology as well as the demands of what business is looking for in employees. She lead the way for her school district to use Google Apps for Education as well has purchased and is utilizing over 500 chromebooks. She has served on the board for Wisconsin Business Education Association and is the 2013 Wisconsin K-12 Outstanding Business Education Teacher, as well as the 2012 Wisconsin Outstanding FBLA Adviser.
