The systems of Red, Purple and Gold are similar in format, but are intended to reach into the upper elementary grades of 3, 4, 5 and possibly some of your 6th grade students. There are many differences from the lower elementary LLI systems: namely the lesson plan format, the length of the intervention, and the focus of learning. The new prompting guide for comprehension will also be revisited during this training. Please come spend two days with the new Title I consultant, Leah Ahneman, and your teaching colleagues to learn more about this level of LLI intervention.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Learn the new lesson plan format of the LLI Systems for Upper Elementary.
2. Explore the Prompting Guide 2 for comprehension support during instruction.
3. Discuss with partner CESA schools how their schedules can/will accommodate the 45 minute fidelity expectation in the upper elementary systems.
