

YOUTH MAX

John MAXwell Team Youth Leadership Event

Wednesday, October 22, 2014
9 a.m. to 2 p.m.
CESA 3 in Fennimore

Based on the teachings of best-selling author Dr. John Maxwell, this training uses materials from his best-selling books "Becoming a Person of Influence" & "Everyone Communicates, Few Connect."

Students will:

- learn communication techniques to build relationships and network
- discuss the 5 levels of leadership
- determine their leadership style
- take the REAL COLORS assessment to determine how they work with others
- participate in influence activities
- participate in team building activities
- develop action planning skills and create goals for the school year

Cost to attend is $15 for Safe and Healthy Schools members and $30 for non-members. Please limit your teams to 5 students at this time.

Lisa Schaefer holds a Masters Degree in Community and School Counseling and is a certified School Counselor. She has been offering leadership trainings since 2002

Leadership means that you have to:

"GET REAL"

Relationship Skills

Equipping Skills

Attitude Skills

Leadership Skills

Sponsored by CESA 3
Safe and Healthy Schools

Contact:

Deb Goold

608-822-2147

dgoold@cesa3.k12.wi.us

Register at:

<http://login.myquickreg.com/event/event.cfm?eventid=10631>

Members include-Belmont, Benton, Boscobel, Cassville, Cuba City, Fennimore, Iowa-Grant, Ithaca, Pecatonica, Platteville, Potosi, River Valley, Seneca, Southwestern