Writing Essentials: Raising Expectations & Results While Simplifying Teaching

October 2, 16, 23, 30 & November 5, 2014 via Distance Learning ~ 4:00-6:00pm

If you want to learn more about how to structure writing into your day in a way that will get students writing with passion and ease. If you want your students to be motivated, confident writers who see writing as an everyday, useful, even enjoyable tool then please join us in the reading of Regie Routman's book Writing Essentials which is simply an oldie, but a goodie in the area of writing.

Learning Outcomes:

1. Learn how Regie Routman encourages us to have and model a writing life.
2. Learn how Regie Routman encourages us to focus on the essentials and raise our expectations for quality of writing in our students.
3. Learn how to structure the writing day.

*One credit option available through St. Mary's University for $130, more information provided on October 2.
