Fundamentals of Family Involvement

A Workshop for Parents and Teachers

Monday, October 18, 2010

Held at: CESA #2

448 E. High St, Milton, WI 53563

9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

The parent is the primary stakeholder in each child's success in school. Please invite parents to attend this workshop with teachers and staff.

Family involvement is key to planning, organizing, implementing, and evaluating high quality educational programs. This introductory workshop will help participants increase their awareness of how effective partnership practices can improve student achievement and behavior. Joyce Epstein's Six Components of Successful Family, School, and Community serve as the foundation of the workshop. Participants complete a "quality indicators" checklist for their school and brainstorm specific ideas and projects to promote the six components. The final activity is writing a plan for action.

We hope you are able to have both parents and teachers attend this valuable workshop.

Lunch will be served.

There is no charge for this training but registration is required!

To register, go to <http://www.myquickreg.com>

First time users will be asked to fill out online registration information first so that you may then register for this and other CESA #2 workshops.

Only registrations made through www.myquickreg.com will be accepted!

You are not registered unless you receive an email confirmation from myquickreg.com

For special accommodations, registration must be received two weeks before event.

Cancellation Policy: We ask that participants cancel no later than 5 days prior to the event so that any school on our waiting list will have sufficient time to find substitute teachers.
