

Empowering Students, Empowering Schools with Digital Voices with Pernille Ripp

THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 2016

9:00AM—3:00PM

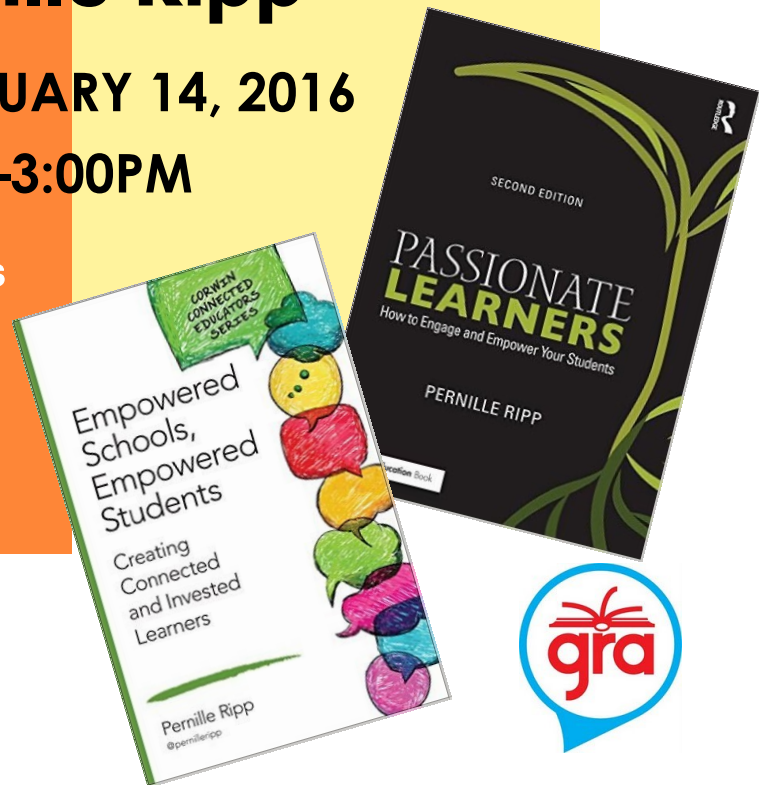

- Passionate Learning Environments
- Student Literacy Choice/Voice
- Family Engagement
- Literacy Tools & Resources

$150.00 standard registration fee includes materials, continental breakfast and lunch

One graduate credit available through Viterbo University upon receipt of additional registration form and tuition payment of $200.00

CONTACT

Kaye Henrickson
khenrickson@cesa4.org
Laura Veglahn
lveglahn@cesa4.org

Mass consumer of incredible books, Pernille Ripp, helps students discover their superpower as a former 5th grade teacher, but now 7th grade teacher in Oregon, Wisconsin. She opens up her educational practices and beliefs to the world on her blog www.pernillesripp.com and is also the creator of the Global Read Aloud Project, a global literacy initiative that since 2010 has connected more than 600,000 students.

Her book "Passionate Learners - How to Engage and Empower Your Students" has been published by Routledge. Her second book "Empowered Schools, Empowered Students" was published by Corwin.

REGISTER HERE!