

Statewide Title I Network Benefits

The Title I Network is a collaborative effort with the Cooperative Educational Service Agencies (CESAs) that provides increased technical assistance and professional development for districts and schools with Title I programs. With financial support from the Department of Public Instruction (DPI), each CESA provides free/reduced cost Title I services for all school districts in their CESA. in the following five areas:

Title I Application

Consultation with Title I coordinators regarding Title I law, programming, reporting requirements, and monitoring.

Title I Coordinator Leadership

Information and resources for Title I coordinators through one-on-one technical assistance, at least two regional meetings, and a Title I coordinator orientation.

Districts/Schools ID'd for Improvement

Assistance to Title I districts and schools identified for improvement including identifying and implementing improvement strategies and sanctions as required under No Child Left Behind (NCLB).

Professional Development

Access to multiple professional development opportunities based on regional Title I needs that have been identified by districts in each CESA.

Resources and Collaboration

Information and resources regarding local and statewide initiatives and agencies that can provide Title I related support.

CESA 5 Student Achievement Consortium Benefits

Tools for your Classrooms!

Reading A-Z, a popular online resource, provides a multitude of guided reading materials for teachers to print and use in their classrooms. CESA 5 will pay subscriptions fees for 5 people per district. Email kreklowt@cesa5.k12.wi.us to register.

High Quality Professional Development

Consortium Meetings provide updates, popular resources, and networking opportunities with other Title I teachers and coordinators. Book studies are often included as activities, as well as guest speakers who share best practices in the field.

Membership includes two registrations to the DPI's Every Child a Graduate Conference held at the Monona Terrace Convention Center. Districts are responsible for travel and lodging costs.

On-site Program Support

CESA 5 curriculum specialists are available to meet with member schools to provide individualized services related to Title I programming, including focused inservices, administrative meetings, or other initiatives pertinent to your district.

Content-focused Grant Opportunities

Current opportunities exist in adolescent literacy and math. Enrich your curriculum and your teachers' expertise as they explore new, innovative ways to improve student learning.

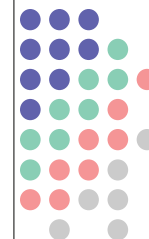

Preferential Pricing for CESA 5 Workshops

Consortium schools pay less to attend workshops offered through the Center for School Improvement at CESA 5.
