

Effective Collaborative Teaming

Leave with an action plan customized for your school which will allow for immediate implementation in the Fall.

Whether you call them Professional Learning Communities, Collaborative Educator Teams, or Adult Learning Communities, research shows that effective collaborative teaming enhances educators' professional growth and student achievement.

What does it mean to be an effective learning team?

This two day workshop will provide school teams with the basics to make their team time effective. The workshop will show educators how to link strategies to Educator Effectiveness Plans and school goals and provide opportunities for teams to collaborate as part of the workshop.

Topics include:

- Team Building: building trust, setting norms, refining collaboration skills
- Team Work: developing structures that strengthen the capacity to analyze, plan, implement and support
- Support of Individuals within the Teams: Goal setting, sharing resources, coaching, enhancing EEP process

Presenter: Dr. Jo Bernhardt, Educator Effectiveness Coach and educational consultant with 25 years experience as a teacher, principal, and PLC coach.

Recommended team membership: principals, teachers representing each grade level, related arts and special education.

Teams should bring copies of school goals and SLOs.

Held at: Evansville High School, 640 S. 5th Street, Evansville, WI

June 18 and 19, 2015
8:30-3:30

Cost: $175 per person

Please register at www.myquickreg.com

Lunch will be on your own!

Workshop content questions? Contact Jo Bernhardt at jo.bernhardt@cesa2.org

Registration questions: Contact Sharon Anderson at sharon.anderson@cesa2.org

If you need special accommodations, registration and payment must be made three weeks before workshop.