Online Forum Dates:

July 15, 2015 -
August 28, 2015

Jeffrey Benson draws from real-life scenarios to explain how to create a patient and supportive environment that helps students to learn.

*Analyzing your students' challenges and developing individualized plans to help them.

*Gaining skills and support and not losing hope through the ups and downs of the work.

*Constructing systems and procedures that give all students the best chance for success.

Find out how a consistent process of sticking with students until they finally "get it" can help you to navigate the complexities of challenging students.

Dave Funk will teach you how to bring the best out of special needs kids. This informative book will answer all your questions plus more. Each page of this book provides:

- Tools and insights for those teaching special needs kids
- Learning at its best through stories and examples
- Powerful techniques that help with all children

Answers for anyone whose life is touched by these special kids.
